

I Gave You My Heart

Hot Chocolate

Darling, what do you take me for
Some kind of fool who believes
Begging on my knees is gonna bring you back
I know that's not a fact

Darling, something inside of me
Tells me that you made up your mind
Nothing I can find, nothing I can do
Would influence you

I gave you my heart, I gave you my soul
Didn't I, didn't I
I gave you my heart, I gave you my heart
Didn't I do it

Darling, guess I need a love that'll last
Yes, I need a girl I can trust
Honesty's a must, searching, searching
Love's always hurting

Darling, so you've got it all cut and dry
Give me just a minute of your time
Before you throw the line
Tell me, tell me, give me little sign, girl

I gave you my heart, I gave you my soul
Didn't I, didn't I
I gave you my heart, I gave you my heart
Didn't I do it

Heard she was a jinx, yeah she was a voodoo brain
If you were me, tell me what would you do, babe

Darling, I should have known it wouldn't last
Yes, I should have known it from the past
You're gonna leave 'em fast
Use him, use him, love's always losing

Darling, so you've got it all cut and dry
Give me just a minute of your time
Before you throw the line
Tell me, tell me, give me little sign, yeah

I gave you my heart, I gave you my soul
Didn't I, didn't I
I gave you my heart, I gave you my heart
Didn't I do it

I gave you my heart, I gave you my soul
Didn't I, didn't I
I gave you my heart, I gave you my heart
Didn't I do it
Didn't I do it
Didn't I
