

I've got an antisocial habit
You'd think I'm from another planet
Am I here too soon
To inhabit you

Am I taking you for granted
'Cause that's not the way I planned it
Why do I act the way I do
I act like a fool

My eyesight is blinded by the sunlight
But I know it makes me feel right
When I'm standing next to you

If everything I said to you was true
I know what it takes to
Why can't I say what I want to
I know what it takes to

I've got a antisocial habit
You'd think I'm from another planet
Am I here too soon
To inhabit you

I can't go on in life deceiving
Don't know what I believe in
But I know what I should do

I know what it takes to
I know how to take you
I know that it takes two

This will go nowhere, why bother
Still live with my mom and father
When I'm with you I am not myself, I'm half a man
Far too lost for you to find me
Wasted like the early nineties
Oh you, only you can bring me back to earth
