

Blossom

Hot Water Music

Flowers, angels in disguise.
Breathing, soft with the moonlit sky.
Feel my beating heart I can taste your life,
With petals in the wind and bright eyes.
Sweet nectar scented skin and rising need.

She's laying down mother earth,
Trembling giving birth,
So limitless and free.
Raining through, I know you.
Let it flow, over me,
Let it flow, let it show, yes I know,
Let it flow. flow all over me.

Heavy, purple fantasy,
Tender, with painful ecstasy.
Wrap your life around my soul,
Suck me in and take control
Oh mother, I'm alive, I am inside.

Fresh blossom fruit, so full and ripe
Oh throbbing appetite
Hot silky springtime burning bright
My throbbing appetite
Soft flower, swollen sweet delight
Fresh blossom fruit, so full and ripe,
Enter today my thrusting night
Oh throbbing appetite!
