

and the beauty wrecks my soul (and I'll see the light all night
)
and the power kills my will (and I'll see the light all night) and this feeling leaves me cold (and I'll see the light all night) and this power kills my will (and I'll see the light all night)

where, where could we run why, why should we try and..

the structure wrecks my soul (and I'll see the light all night)

and the power kills my will (and I'll see the light all night)
and this meaning leaves me cold (and I'll see the light all night)
and this power kills my will (and I'll see the light all night)

what would it take
to find a place
without a name
I won't lie down my hands for this

what would it take
to find a place
without a name
I won't lie down my hands for this

it wrecks my it shows me it sees me where I need
I won't lie down my hands for this
it wrecks my it shows me it sees me where I need
