

The Passing

Hot Water Music

It was a day and passing
Someone thought someone was in the way
No one caught what I caught (No!) but I caught it full on
I didn't want to be mixed up that way

Die? Still Alive
Not today - anyway
'Cause I know one thing
Stuck in my head
Should I let it work
Cuz I'll see it once again

And when I find the passing
I find myself caught in the exchange
If I could stop hurting
If I could get away
I'd like to look and find my place

Die? Still Alive
Not today - anyway
'Cause I know one thing
Stuck in my head
Should I let it work
Cuz I'll see it once again
I did once
I laid my hands down for this
It might be the last time
Stuck in my head
Should I let it work
Cuz I'll see it once again

You were right behind me - (I see you right behind me)
Behind! Behind!

I'll see it once again
It's in my head, it's in my head
I'll see it once again
I see you
I'll see it once
It's in my head
And the times we have had
And see you once again
