

Run Away Happy

Hotel Lights

you and your beautiful life making plans no one needs to know your favorite line got lost today turned off, antenna down nowhere to go you remember way back when the reception is a private affair

run away happy
run away happy

reading between the lines why should you why should you count the days on your hand the last page in your journal who you were is a memory see it in your eyes, i can see it in your eyes

run away happy
run away happy
run away happy

watching tourists walk in a maze it's beautiful
you can hold your thoughts for ransom like a birthday
and run away
run away
run away happy

late friday night, no appetite off limits come to your senses no one ever thought you would

run away happy
run away happy
