Ascension

Hour of Penance

Heading for the home of god The scent of christian blood is upon thee Seeking to ascend upon the throne again With rage we're moving forward, We don't spare a single human being, no one's left, alive Descend upon the ones who don't submit to our master's will, No one's left alive Hail - Hail - The christian church burns in fire Hail - Hail - Dethrone the pope, now he's hanged and defiled Hail - Hail - Defy the cross, decimate this race Hail - Hail - The sun is crumbling, all the stars are pale Hail - Hail - Hail - Hail The sun is crumbling, all the stars are pale... ...and then He raises his hand, This place becomes a barren land of pain Unholy tyrant - No mercy, shed their blood Casting down the cosmos, every law's becoming tamed now Defloration - New monarch, spread your wings We all Hail - Hail - The christian church burns in fire Hail - Hail - Dethrone the pope, now he's hanged and defiled Hail - Hail - Defy the cross, decimate this race Hail - Hail - The sun is crumbling, all the stars are pale With rage we're moving forward, We don't spare a single human being, no one's left, alive Descend upon the ones who don't submit to our master's will, No one's left alive Pater, I feel my blood turn into fire Grow in me, nourish me, I feel my soul turn into fire
