

All Is Gone

House of Lords

I get up
To get down
Looked away
All around
What was here
Is gone

What was now
Will never be found
Fall away
It's such a strange way
To say goodbye
Oh, no, no

All is gone
I know
You just have to leave it
All is done I guess
I'll just have to leave it
Leave it alone

You were in
You were out
Fell apart full of doubt
It's a shame, oh no
In the end
We're all alone

Fade away
It's too bad
You couldn't stay

All is gone
I know
You just have to leave it
All is done I guess
I'll just have to leave it
Leave it alone

All is done I guess
I'll just have to leave it

All is gone
I know
You just had to leave it
All is done I guess
I'll just have to leave it
Leave it alone

Yes, leave it alone
Leave it alone
