

All The Pieces Falling

House of Lords

The truth is yesterday and who was away
Now the road is beneath my wheels
Ancient bells are tolling
City lights are glowing

When the coal of all the fire just dies
When the light of faith keeps fading away
When I'm feel I'm falling
I pray it's gonna change

All the pieces falling
Are tearing us down
All the voices calling
And we don't hear a sound

Gotta find away to face it alone
Wanna ride into the sun
But the road keeps turning
Turning back on what we do

There's a chance that we could work it all out
If we just could raise desire from doubt
When the heart is earing
Lord tear it all around

All the pieces falling
Are tearing us down
All the voices calling
And we don't hear a sound

All the pieces falling
Are tearing us down
All the pieces falling

All the voices calling
And we don't hear a sound
All the pieces falling
Are tearing us down

All the pieces falling
Are tearing us down
(All the pieces falling)
All the voices calling
And we don't hear a sound
(All the pieces falling)

All the pieces falling
Are tearing us down
(All the pieces falling)
All the voices calling
And we don't hear a sound
(All the pieces falling)

All the pieces fall, all the pieces fall
(All the pieces falling)
All the pieces fall, all the pieces fall

(All the pieces falling)
All the pieces falling
All the voices calling
And we don't hear a sound
(All the pieces falling)
