

Edge Of Your Life

House of Lords

You've gotta run just to crawl
To get back to where you started
And let the tears fall
Like the rain that the storm is sending

With the world on your shoulders
And your heart in your hand
You're ready to see my face
In the shadows of a different man

Well could you turn to
When your world comes tumblin' down
And who's there to hold you
When no one else is around

Standing on the edge of your life
With no one to run to
The edge of your life
Looking for words I told you

Could my words tear your soul
If they reached down inside you
Open your eyes to this course
If you don't I can't find you

Well could you turn to
When your world comes tumblin' down baby
And who's there to hold you
When no one else is around

Standing on the edge of your life
With no one to run to
The edge of your life
Looking for words I told you

On the edge of your
On the edge of your life

Yeah who can you turn to
When your world comes fallin' down
And who's there to hold you
When no one else is around

Standing on the edge of your life
With no one to run to
The edge of your life
On the edge of your
On the edge of your
On the edge of your life
With no one to run to
The edge of your life, oh oh

Your life, baby, life
Standing on the edge
On the edge of your life
Of your life
