

I Don't Wanna Wait All Night

House of Lords

I don't wanna wait all night
Girl, you know my heart is calling
I don't wanna wait all night
Just to have you slip away
So, whoa, so whoa far away

I know you wanna ride with me
And when you tell your friends
They're gonna say you're crazy
Come listen to the melody
Don't be, wanna be girl
'Cause you amaze me

Runaway angel
I say you know that you're beautiful
Mondays to Sundays
Fun days I know what you want, girl

You don't want a fantasy
But it's tough for me to tell you
I know just what it is
That fills you with desire

I don't wanna wait all night, girl
You know my heart is calling
I don't wanna wait all night
Just to have you slip away
So, whoa, so whoa far away all night

You say you wanna fly with me
But there's a fire inside
I know can burn you
You better take a hold of me
I take a chance and see
What luck will earn you

I wanna conceal you
Undress your inner secrets
I made it hard for you
'Cause no one wants you with me

I don't wanna wait all night, girl
You know my heart is calling
I don't wanna wait all night
Just to have you slip away
So, whoa, so whoa far away, far away, yeah
So, whoa, so whoa far away, far away

Runaway angel
I say you know that you're beautiful
Runaway angel
I say I know what you want, girl

You don't wanna start with me
But that's part of what compels you
You know just how it feels
To turn the best away, yeah

I don't wanna wait all night
Girl, you know my heart is calling
I don't wanna wait all night
Just to have you slip away
So, whoa, so whoa far away all night
