

One Touch

House of Lords

One touch it changes everything
One touch awakens every dream

More than a look
More than ocean of lust
More than kiss
More than a treasure of trust

All that I know is that I'm achin'
For what you got, girl
You're makin' it hard on me
'Cause it's never enough

I don't remember ever letting you know
That girl if you want another ending

One touch it changes everything
One touch awakens every dream

More than a night
Covered in satin and lace
More than mask
Hiding the truth on your face

And I don't believe
You ever pushed me this hard
I can't afford
To fall apart now, because

One touch it changes everything
One touch awakens every dream
One touch it's really all I need
One touch will bring you back to me

One touch, baby, one touch
One touch, baby, one touch

I don't believe
You ever took me this far
If you want another
If you want another ending

One touch it changes everything
One touch awakens every dream
One touch it's really all I need
One touch will bring you back to me
One touch, baby, one touch
