Fresh Air Waltz

Howard Jones

Looking at you now, you seem just a shadow You had the energy to recharge our batteries I suppose your success became your security Darkness is not what you need

You were the one who refused to give up You were the one who lifted us, lifted us off our knees Now it's our turn to give you some help Fresh air that's just what you need

Not the stale bread from the failing bitter table It's so hard Where's the justice we cry It's there and will follow us 'til the day we die, 'til The day that we die

Looking at you know, you seem just a shadow You had the energy and you recharged our batteries Now it's our turn to give you some help Fresh air that's just what you need

Now it's our turn to give you some help Fresh air that's just what you need That's just what you need
