

Chasing Amy

Howards Alias

This year I want to end this,
I've made a fool of myself over again,
This year I want to feel that
Comfort of having someone over again.

You've taken all that was me, I thought I wasn't like them,
But I guess that I am.

Transcend away from this room,
This conversation's wearing thin,
I won't let you take over,
I won't have things this way.
"You try and fail." time and again.

You've taken all that was me, I thought I wasn't like them,
But I guess that I am.

What do you say when asked if you really like this or is this fake?

What do you say when asked is this really what you want?

What do you say when asked is this really what you want?

What do you say when asked am I really what you want?

Transcend away from this room,
This conversation's wearing thin,
I won't let you take over,
I won't have things this way.
"You try and fail." time and again.

You've taken all that was me, I thought I wasn't like them,
But I guess that I am.

You've taken all that was me, I thought I wasn't like them,
But I guess that I am,
Am.
