

Love Knows (no Borders)

Howe Gelb

Well, welcome to the season of suspicion and what not where the only reason is based on why not maybe your bank account is not a high enough amount just jingling your pockets full of quarters, well
maybe you're crossing over the line to arrive just in time now I know the gates all got their supporters, but find a strip to land where survivors need a helping hand crossing over the line to feed a famine in time I know we all got our orders, but
