

Madrigals

Howie Day

I'm not so sure what I was dreaming
About but I'm sure it was better
Than this and I'll hope you suppose
That I'm alright I'm buying you flowers

You told everyone, they know everything is real
And your madrigals and your silver rings
I still see a flash
From the time I opened my eyes too wide

I couldn't have asked you to stay
I'm already falling to pieces
From this and I'll hope you suppose
That I'm alright I'm sending you flowers

You told everyone, they know everything is real
And your madrigals and your silver rings
I still see a flash
From the time I opened my eyes too wide

I said to know your troubles... (repeat)
