

The Biggest Lie

Hüsker Dü

You think you've made it to the top because people know your name,

It's still the same

Your daydreams aren't forever, better get your shit together

For a new game

Back to your day job

Back to your girlfriend

Back to your hometown

The biggest lie

Passing harsher judgement, but you brought it on yourself

By being you

You trade your work for no success, you tried to be a hero

But you end up nothing
