

When the Time Has Come

Huey Lewis & The News

Everything's gonna clear up
And the sun will shine
Everybody's gonna cheer up
'cause it's redemption time

Don't you worry 'bout a thing
Cause you know things are gonna change
When the time has come

Walls are gonna crumble
And fall into the sea
Oh, all men will be humble
That's a guarantee

A little rain is gonna fall
But it will only wash away the tears of us all

Don't you worry bout a thing
'cause that train is gonna run
You will be on it
From here to kingdom come
When the time has come

Listen to the band
Feels like a change

Wind is gonna rise up
And blow us all away
People gonna wise up
Cause it's judgement day

So don't you worry about a thing
Cause you know that train is gonna run
You will be on it
Not just for some
We'll all be on it
From here to kingdom come
When the time has come

When the time has come
When the time has come
Oh when the time has come

Everything's gonna clear up
Everybody cheer up
Walls are gonna crumble
All men will be humble
Feeling it getting stronger
Won't be down much longer
We will be free
When the time has come

When the time has come
I believe the time has come
Feels like a change
When the time....
