

Love In Your Eyes

Hugh Cornwell

My vision's getting better now
A perspective at last
There's dawn upon the horizon
And the sun is rising fast

I feel your presence everywhere
There's magic in the air
Maybe other people have your time
But I don't care

'Cos when we scintillate
The sparks begin to fly
And then it escalates
The ground goes flying by

And then I find, I find, I find
I find love in your eyes

This modern world is cheap enough
I won't make it cheaper still
Temptation hasn't got a chance
With me it's lost its thrill

Your jewel lies hidden out of reach
The rest they know it's there
They wish they'd hung on to their dreams
Like you have it so rare

'Cos when we scintillate
The sparks begin to fly
And then it escalates
The ground goes flying by

And then I find, I find, I find
I find love in your eyes

'Cos when we scintillate
The sparks begin to fly
And then it escalates
The ground goes flying by

And then I find, I find, I find
I find love in your eyes
Love in your eyes

I find, I find, I find
I find love in your eyes
Love in your eyes

I find, I find, I find
I find love in your eyes
Love in your eyes
