

Puzzle I Am

Hugh Dillon

Never settle down my baby
Never settle up
Just lock the doors
Drive like crazy
'Til the wheels fall off
And you change my mind now honey
Reconfigured my soul
Disrupted my corruption
I closed my eyes and let go
And you look so beautiful
When you don't give a damn
You had the missing piece to
The puzzle I am

And there were no easy answers
Nothing was what it seemed
That applies to everyone else
Except you and me
When I caught up to you honey
That time in the past
We re-wrote the future and we
We started from scratch
And you look so beautiful
When you, you don't give a damn
And you had the missing piece to the puzzle I am

We were so reckless honey
When opportunity knocked
We took the wheel and drove like crazy
And we still haven't stopped
We shined the light in the shadows
Took the night from the day
Smile a little more than I used to
And I like it that way
And you are so beautiful
When you, you don't give a damn
You had the missing piece to the puzzle I am
The puzzle I am
