

Surface Of The Sun

Hugh Dillon

You may sit and cry
On this lonely night
Waiting around
Playing with fire
But it's alright
The best part
You ain't got to yet
You may not decide
If it's wrong or right
With your less than perfect
Life tonight
But it's alright
You'll figure it out yourself
Curiosity got the best of me this time
But it won't shake my destiny
Completely got away from me
I don't know my limit
Or my strength you see
I telephone I'm gonna be there soon
I'm gonna catch a cab
I'm gonna leave my room
But it's alright
The best part I ain't got to yet

Sitting in the sun
With my head in the sand
I don't give a damn about the words they're saying
I'm just trying to learn how not to get burned
But the surface of the sun is always raging
Curiosity got the best of me this time
But it won't shake my destiny
Just trying to learn how not to get burned
But the surface of the sun
Is always raging
