

Well On Your Way

Hugh Dillon

Well I have kissed the stars and the police cars
And that little voice I choose to accept
And now I have turned around
And I have walked away
And quicken my step
Well you know that you're well on your way
At this point it's safe to say
You're well on your way

Hey hey
Now I have kissed the ground
And I've been forced to run
And I've been limited
Thinking away
And I have turned around
And I have learned to face
Every day

Well you know that you're well on your way
At this point it's safe to say hey hey
You're well on your way

Well I have kissed the stars and the police cars
And that little voice don't go away
And I have turned around
And I've been forced to face every day

Well you know that decisions were made
At this point it's safe to say hey hey
You're well on your way
Well you know that you're well on your way
At this point it's safe to say hey hey
You're well on your way
