Hum

I want to get stronger, yes I'm a gentle man,
Down waves and tiny arms,
And a tiny voice that never said things quite right.
And here's a funny place to be now, things always come my way.
The sky is not so green as it seems, as it seems.
Two made a life of background noise,
Your voice just killing time, and this one fails to tell it all
My life, it's slowed down to a crawl.
My love songs suck, yours make me cry,
The world beneath you wonders why your wings never touch the ground,
No matter how softly they seem.
(?)
My love songs suck, yours make me cry,
The world beneath you wonders why.
I know I did, I know I do.
Can't you say I miss you too?
Just shut your eyes, love me too.
Shut your eyes, love me too.
Shut your eyes, love me too.
Shut your eyes, love me too.
