

I failed in life, I failed in love.
I fail to see the humor in any of this, yeah,
maybe more than you can know, an afterthought, I'm gonna go.

I failed in life, I failed in love, I fail to see,
watch me any good at this.
Yeah, but I do shit, and I'm in charge,
and you look upset I'm living large.
Yeah, I know that you stand by him, so roam,
feel this one's supposed to persuade, that's my own.
I love you like no other, yeah,
in time I'll use some space to wrap myself in my love and feel
my face.

And cry, yeah, yeah, God help me cry.
Yeah, it comes on like a dream scene to which I haven't seen,
and there you are, fuck yeah, yeah, yeah, there you are.

A little too simple, she is, I dance alone.
Feel this one's supposed to persuade, that's my own.
I love you like no other, yeah,
in time I'll use some space to wrap myself in my love and feel
my face.
