

Sundress

Hum

Flowers flying everywhere, dragon spruce is screaming in your hair.

You showed me your sundress last Sunday,
it's yellow, red, black and white and gray.
You showed me your sundress last Sunday,
no I don't like it, I don't like what you said.

If I was flying everywhere away from you,
I don't think you could understand what I'm going through.

You showed me your sundress last Sunday,
it's yellow, red, black and white and gray.
Yeah, you showed me your sundress last Sunday,
no I don't like it, I don't like what you said.

In your arms you bring me down,
no words in my head that can be found.
Yeah, she's all I want.
There are no arms to bring me down,
no words in my head that can be found.
Yeah, she's all I want.
There are no arms to bring me down,
no words in my head that can be found.
(That's it.)
