

Under Siege

Human Fortress

One day of shame
We're longing for a second chance
But we didn't heed
The warning from our enemy
The breach is irreversible

Under siege
We fight behind our gates of steel
The king of war we're still fighting for
We swear an oath so heaven can't wait
It's no time to die
We will recover from the storm
Raise our swords before we're gonna fall

They don't gain ground
But we believe in victory
Our losses should not be in vain
My Lord is sneaking up
Far behind to catch our souls
A bloody prey he can't let go no
