

Moody Motorcycle

Human Highway

I had an easy alibi
Well don't cry, I'm an animal
Keys in ignition underway
Kick start, angry unraveling
Out of control, carelessly managing

Drove out to the city limits
And my mood'll be still, moody motorcycle
No one will ever find me here
Leaving my will, moody motorcycle

Planting a seed on the winding road
You can't bloom if you don't grow
Remain in the lane I travel in
I won't spin out of control again
The city shrinks, carefully shedding skin
