

My Beach

Human Highway

I swim the shore
I brought you some coral
I've been here before
And I'll be here tomorrow

There was a man-o-war
There was a sword fish
I sure wish the shore
Was within my reach

When I'm lying on your sand
And you're my (you're my you're my) beach

I built you a castle
But the tide took it away
And now you think I'm an asshole
So I try to make it okay

I give you the ocean
But it would only bring you down
I'll give more than my footprints
S stands for more than the sound
Of the sea we watch coming in
Below the gulls that are hovering

And I won't rub it in
To all the creatures that are struggling
To keep afloat

I love the sand on my toes
Each grain of it
You're my beach
And I won't (I won't I won't) forget

You're my (you're my you're my) beach
