

Sleep Talking

Human Highway

Stand back from that window,
Get away from that window!
Nobody goes out there,
Nobody goes out there!
Hey lady, didn't you hear me!
Hey, lady!

Sleep talking, but no real words come out your mouth
Sleep walking, your feet face north but your brain's gone south

Dreaming again, just lying in bed
Your movement is minimal
Now you're leaving your bed, got ideas in your head
But if they remain a dream you know it's criminal

You're in my clothes, but there's no where to go
You can scream all you like, but it won't change tonight
Cause you're sleeping
(sleeping, you're sleeping)

Sleep talking
Sleep walking
You're sleep walkin'
You're sleep talkin'
