

She's So Gone

Human Nature

Some days I wonder could I be a better man
I open up my eyes to see myself and who I am
Been searching inside to find a reason in my day
And I realise that reason in my life has gone away
I blame it on myself she's gone
Give a little, take a little, never gave it all
Maybe if I held her close and loved a little more
I'll be the better man she wanted me to be
Just tell me that it's not too late and bring her home to me
Light a candle now she's gone

She's so gone
Now everyday I'm holding on
I'm praying that she'll come back home
I'm hoping that it won't take long
She's so gone and I can't keep on living

Kiss one more picture frame that's hanging on the wall
And hope pools to flowers* 'till the last petal falls
I'll be the better man she wanted me to be
Tell me that I'm not too late and bring her home to me
Light a candle now she's gone

She's so gone
Now everyday I'm holding on
Praying that she'll come back home
Hoping that it won't take long
She's so gone and I can't keep on living she's gone

(She's so gone so gone)
And everyday I'm holding on
Oh, I'm praying that she'll come back home
I'm hoping that it won't take long
She's so gone and I can't keep on living at all

Well I found out I need her so much in my life now she's gone
(She's so gone so gone)
And I'm sending the message all over the world to come home
Come home

She's so gone
(She's so gone)
Now everyday I'm holding on
(Everyday I'm praying...)
Praying that she'll come back home
(...It won't take long too long...)
Hoping that it won't take long
She's so gone and I can't keep on living, she's gone
(She's so gone so gone)
Now everyday I'm holding on
I'm Praying that she'll come back home
(...It won't take long too long...)
Hoping that it won't take long
She's so gone and I can't keep on living at all
...
