

Big Brother

Humanwine

Maybe you're right those steps behind start and stop as you do

Hiding out of light irises
reset as you move

Maybe in the bank they're watching
At your job they're watching Television's watching what your clone is watching It's a blunt set up under Caesar's lens and the beast is watching Everything

Maybe you weren't off when you said
We're just slaving for the man Bred in martial law, veiled in plastic thought of a secret means to ends

Maybe big brother is watching
big brother is watching
big brother is watching
big brother is watching
big brother is watching
big brother is watching
big brother is watching
big brother is watching
Let 'em watch!!

What, are you gonna sit around and worry?
Chewing your life to its tomb
What, have you given up on freedom before they've taken it from you?
You're un happy and losing your mind
You're naked and weeping in the mall Shiveringly asking,
"Why is everyone looking at me?!"

Arriving just in time Here's the men in white blurred through your tears then you Roll off to rubber rooms

With doctors watching and the cameras watching and he watched all watching!

Even if the eye
on pyramids
Is keeping track of Your every move

You can't contain your thoughts, they're all you've got Just go and do what you do!

So what if big brother is watching
Let 'em watch!
