Trust in love not like some thing's above to fear to fake while you hold Evolve human human instinct
there is more to life than war

Do you see at all?
Do they see at all?
Do we see at all?

Sauyeigh
Heads are rolling on the ground
Rather to fight than lay down

We objectify and sell the earth until the other side of birth And to each other jagged pins out of our mouths
We object to these objects they are frail little locksets they are seizure while we leisure guarding our will

Do you see at all?
Do they see at all?
Do we see at all?

Rather to fight than lay down
