

Baby don't you do it

Humble Pie

Baby, don't you do it, don't you break my heart
Don't do it, girl, don't you break my heart.

'Cause I sacrifice to make you happy, get nothin' for myself
Now you gonna leave me for the love of someone else
My heart is made of glass then you strolled, you see
How much heartache and misery, girl, you've been 'causin' me.

Don't do it, don't you break my heart.
Please, don't you break my heart

Try to make you so happy, get nothin' for myself, oh yeah
Now you gonna leave me, girl, for the love of someone else
Try to do my best, try to do my best
Do it, do it, do it, don't you break my heart.

Go down to the river and there I'll be
I'm gonna jump in, girl, if you don't see by me
Open up your heart, can't you see I need you?
Open up your heart, can't you see I love you?

Don't you break my heart.

My pride is all gone, whether right or wrong
But I need you, baby, so I keep on, keep on.

Baby, don't you do it, don't you break my heart
