

Cold Lady

Humble Pie

Tell me, have you ever seen me sad before?
With thought of more than just a laugh?
You know that all I hope to do is make you understand
Just what I am and what I'm trying to say.

I'm gonna try, I'm gonna try
To make you talk to me
I'm gonna cry, I'm gonna cry
The hidden fear, you won't see.

And then if when I try, though I start to fall
Down along the way
Will you pick me up or would you put me down?
Surely sir, I really could not say, oh yeah.

I'm gonna try, I'm gonna try
To make you talk to me
I'm gonna cry, I'm gonna cry
The hidden fear, you won't see.

And then I know I try to fly
Like bird with broken wing
And I'm running before I can walk
I need, I need someone to take my hand
Lead me through the wall.

I'm gonna try, I'm gonna try
To make you talk to me
I'm gonna cry, I'm gonna cry
The hidden fear, the hidden fear, you won't see, yeah..
