

Earth And Water Song

Humble Pie

I'll take your word
If it rains i'll wear my coat
Don't tell me now
What, what is to come
I live from day to day
Who knows what tomorrow may bring
Love and fate run hand-in-hand
I know there must be a better land
Ooh, ooh
Yeah, i know there must be a better land

I'll take your word
That a moonbeam can be heard
Time passes by
But my heart still stays the same
She came just like the sun
I know she's mine, i know
You see the stars and yet
I am the earth
And she is my water, yeah
I am the earth
And she is my water

I'll take your word
That your moon has moved away
Don't look ahead
For me, i'll wait my turn

I am the earth
And she is my water

I've found all i need is my love
In the day, oh at night
In the morning
She can tell when i'm down
I'll sing this song
When things are all wrong

I live from day to day
Who knows what tomorrow may bring
Love and fate run hand-in-hand
I know there must be a better land
I know there must be a better land
