

When Did You Stop Loving Me

Hunter Hayes

When did you stop loving me You let me down so perfectly and you walked away so easily baby, tell me, when did you stop loving me

Tell me, when did you give up on us did I love too much or not enough and is there someone else you're thinking of and when did you give up on us

What do I do
with the mess you made of me with all that I lose
I think you owe me one thing Ya know, I don't need you're reasons or your sympathy
girl, just tell me, when did you stop loving me

Tell me, when did you start drifting away and have you loved me less with every single day
If you were over me, girl, tell me, why did you stay
When did you start drifting away

What do I do
with the mess you made of me
with all that I lose
I think you owe me one thing
Ya know, I don't need you're reasons
or your sympathy
girl, just tell me, when did you stop loving me

I just wanna know
When did you stop loving me

Is this really how you want it to end with the like of love and the lost of a friend Now I'm scared of loving anybody else again is this how you want it to end

When did you stop loving me?

Baby, tell me, when did you give up on me did you give up on me when did you give up
when did you give up

oh, tell me, when did you stop when did you stop when did you stop loving me, yeah

When did you give up?
