

Treadmills Of Love

Hunter Valentine

Tell all my friends I'm not home, I'd rather go this alone
My mind been blown to pieces, my life an empty thesis
All those things I thought I stood for, left outside your boyfriend's front door
All those promises that you made, you said you would take to your grave

You can try and take this away from me, you just can't take it, you just can't take it

I've tried so many times to get it right, but I can't get it right living without you
I've tried so many times to make it right, but I can't make it right sleeping without you
All those things I thought I stood for, left outside your fucking front door

You can try and get, try to get right next to me, you can try and sit try and sit right next to me. Hey! Hey! Hey!
