

Seven

Hunter

Sleep my baby..... dreama peaceful dream
It will protect you from your Evil...
At night You are where each day is...
Hush.... hush...hush...
... the party won't crush...

The dawn tears you apart,
releases the Evil...
You wriggle like a snake...
'Cos somebody's waiting
... the one... you are trying to...
... run away... ?

Come...
my baby... come...
you'll get a gift...
...A BELOVED THRONE (inverted)
... BELOVED PARADISE (inverted)

The DREAM... is a momentary illusion...
'Cos HE... will give you the power and You...
merciless on a throne in blood, will find yourself...

The nightmare passes away... when you fall asleep
The dream will protect you from your Evil...

And will come back when the day... spreads its charm
...A BELOVED THRONE (inverted) ... BELOVED PARADISE (inverted)
Cash, Strength, Power! (inverted)

The DREAM... is but an illusion...
'Cos HE... will do everything! What you want!
And You... merciless on a throne in blood...
will find...

Seven paths in the dark leads... into the dark!
You wriggle like someone who stays...
though leaving so much he required...

The DREAM... will be a moment of hope...
Will we begin the party again?
Will You... like a thoughtless puppet...
in blood... find yourself... ?

Sleep my baby... dream... a peaceful dream
It will protect you... from your bad...

... DREAM!
It'll only be a memory...
'Cos I'll give you everything! What you want!
And You will see seven paths in blood...
You'll find them... they'll find you...
I'll find you... You'll find yourself
