Don't Clone Me

Huntingtons

my parents think i'm crazy some paranormal seed they called the family doctor he knows just what i need they took me to the hospital said i'm a moral threat they figured out which dna would make me function correct don't clone me (4x)

i layed down on the table they said to breath in deep i saw my parents smile at me before i fell asleep they finished the procedure and no it wasn't cheap but now they can pick which one of me that they'd prefer to keep
