

He Better Stay Away From My Girl

Huntingtons

you know i've seen that boy when she's walking down the street start starin' her down but it's alright cause i know that it's me she's thinking about so all you other pukes can just throw in the towel don't bother waitin' cause it's gonna be awhile and she don't even care about you anyhow yeah that girl's got her sights on me he better

you know i saw that kid on the avenue last night he thinks i'm kidding around if he doesn't back off well there's gonna be a fight she's gonna beat the punk down i can't wait to see his face whe he pops his jaw back into place he'll feel like such a disgrace when he wakes up in that wooden case cause when they found his cracked head thought for sure that he was dead and i don't think he'll bother her no more
