

No Pool Party Tonite

Huntingtons

sign on the door says party tonight and a party starts your summer right some kids are outta school a pool party would be so cool but the fun is going on at 5 but there's still no one lined up outside well then look the other way (?) somebody's gonna pay well i don't mind a little show or playing for some friends we know 'cause all 'n' all i know we'll be alright but there's no pool party tonight no pool party tonight

no claps no cheers means no encore 'cause the 8 kids don't wanna hear no more theres no bathing suites tonight no bikini girls tonight now and later it's all the same 'cause we won't be here to take the blame i guess i'll throw my gum away hey grab some chips for me
