

Come Adriel
Toll the bell
Death Angle

Come hell awaits
Open the gates
Loser your faith

The Horsemen ride tonight

Die... the fifth season arrives
Die... the reaper's by your side
All life drains from your eyes
Senicide

Look what you've done
What you've become
Nothing won

Quick here comes Death
Take your last breath
You are spent

The Horsemen ride tonight

Die... the fifth season arrives
Die... the reaper's by your side
All life drains from your eyes

You try to hide, you try to run
But you'll be slipping in your blood
All those prayers you thought would save
Will be buried in your grave

Die... the fifth season arrives
Die... the reaper's by your side
All life drains from your eyes
Senicide
