

Starbound Beast

Huntress

Feeding on the roots of lifeless trees and centipedes
Crawling deep beneath on bleeding knees with silent greed Doomed to suffer this life alone
Lusting for the sky, the stars at night,

My crystal throne
Gods please have mercy
My soul is yours
Starbound to seize my destiny
One with the stars forever more Journey to the highest mountain peak, though I am weak
Marching insects at my command swiftly expand
Black wet ice cliffs can't stop me

I've got claws for days to climb my way to victory
Gods please have mercy
My soul is yours
Starbound to seize my destiny
One with the stars forever more
