

10000 Years

Hurricane

Girl I'm like an animal
Locked up in a cage
You know I'd do anything to see you
Hungry for your love tonight
Honey, I can't wait
You're the one
I swear I need you

No more talkin' on the telephone
No more knockin' at your door
Tonight is yours and mine
We'll turn back the hands of time
Maybe then you'll see
The kind of love inside of me

10,000 years
I'm gonna love you
10,000 years tears
I'll wash away
10,000 reasons baby
I'm stilll thinking of you
My heart won't last another lonely day

City moon across the water
Ease that velvet tongue across your lips
Ooh, you know how to burn my soul
With pure desire
Ooh baby, baby, don't keep me at your fingertips
