

Give Me An Inch

Hurricane

I'm moving closer to the danger zone
Can't believe these feelings on my mind
There's no answer to the question
Thoughts go round and round
Maybe it's time to cross the line

I'm living in a matchbox waiting
Got to find a key to her heart
Keeping up so intoxicating
Where in the world do I start

Give me an inch
Give me a chance
To find, to find, to find our love
It all relies on you
Give me an inch
Give me a chance
To find, to find, to find
What is it girl that I can do

I'm moving slowly but it feels okay
One step ahead is two behind
There's a reason for believing silence is no sound
This time I'm gonna cross the line

I'm living in a matchbox waiting
Got to find a key to her heart
Keeping up so intoxicating
Where in the world do I start

Give me an inch
Give me a chance
To find, to find, to find our love
It all relies on you
Give me an inch
Give me a chance
To find, to find, to find
What is it girl that I can do

Ow!

There's no answer to the question, thoughts go round and round
This time I'm gonna cross the line

Give me an inch
Give me a chance
To find, to find, to find our love
It all relies on you
Give me an inch
Give me a chance
To find, to find, to find
What is it girl that I can do
