

Over The Edge

Hurricane

You'll spend it in darkness
In this dream with no sound
I'm caught in a crosswind
That won't let me rest or be found

Am I losing my senses?
Are my senses just learning to feel?
This soul seems too crazy
Is it real?

I'll think about tomorrow
When yesterday's begun
My life is spinning faster
Like a rollercoaster on the run

But it's not my first life
And I'm sure it's not the last

Livin' over the edge
I feel I'm going down
Over the edge
Livin' over the edge
And I'm losing ground (Ooh!)

Am I sleeping in the darkness?
Or waking in the sun?
Just a little bit higher
The dreams I had when I was young

I hope that tomorrow
I will be stronger than today

Livin' over the edge
I feel I'm going down
Over the edge
Livin' over the edge
And I'm losing ground (Ooh!)

I don't know how long I can go on

Ooh-oh! Oh!

I know that someday
I will be history
So this fool's confusion
I swear it's killing me

Oh!

But I know tomorrow
I will be stronger than today

Livin' over the edge
I feel I'm going down
Over the edge
Livin' over the edge
And I'm losing ground

Over the edge

Livin' over the edge

Feel I'm going down

Over the edge

Livin' over the edge

And I'm going down, down, down
