

Reign Of Love

Hurricane

I'm not the world's most sensitive guy
Big talkin', heart stoppin'
Oh I ain't never been shy
Don't even ask me why

Waastin' time puts a line on my face
I could have you breathless, baby
And leave without a trace
Anytime, anyplace

Well I sense your satisfaction
Couldn't stop me baby if you tried
So give in to this chain reaction
You are going under
Tonight I'm gonna do you like
Lightning and thunder

You're gonna get wet
And you'll be lovin' it
When my reign of love comes down
Don't run for cover
One way or another
When my reign of love comes down
You won't regret me
There's no forgettin' me
When my reign of love comes down
Don't try to fight it
Ooh don't wrong or right it
When my reign of loves comes down

I can see that you're a slave to the thrill
Even as we talk about it
You're giving in to my will
It's the hunt and the kill

Makin' love
Is how I pass the time
Hard knockin', sure shockin'
I'll stop your heart on a dime
It ain't even a crime

You can't run from your attraction
Couldn't change it even if you tried
So give in to this chain reaction
You are going under
Tonight, I'm gonna do you like
Lightning and thunder
