

Spark In My Heart

Hurricane

This room belongs to no one
It once held life for me
Four walls closing in
Is all I see

Momma I'm leaving
Please try to understand
That I've got to be myself
Learn to be a man

Now there's nowhere to run to
Nowhere to hide
I'm gonna pack up my things
And leave them all behind
And go away

This life is my own
Right from the start
I'll make it alone
With that spark in my heart
Taking my chances
To play my own card
I'm trusting no one
Just a spark in my heart

Thinking of this moment
Has carried me so long
Don't worry about what I'm missing
After I'm gone

Momma I'm going
Got to leave this boy behind
You jump your own way
Now I'm choosing mine

Now there's nowhere to run to
Nowhere to hide
I'm gonna pack up my things
And leave them all behind
I'm freelance

This life is my own
Right from the start
I'll make it alone
With the spark in my heart
Taking my chances
To play my own card
I'm trusting no one
Just a spark in my heart

This life is my own
Right from the start
I'll make it alone
With the spark in my heart
Taking my chances
To play my own card
I'm trusting no one

Just a spark in my heart

Trusting no one

Just a spark in my heart
