

Lovestruck

Hush.

Every little thing he does is so magic, magic and every time I see his smiling eyes I get so happy, happy and it feels just like I'm so in love again

Heaven is a raindrop falling on a dry spot finally I'm love struck
and flying high again
my mind is in a sweet haze
I'm putting on my black lace
I'm longing for your embrace
to take me home again

Find a little place where we can be together, forever I'll cook you all your favourite things and dress in leather, whenever you call my name I'm so in love again

Heaven is a raindrop falling on a dry spot
my mind is in a sweet haze
I'm putting on my black lace
I'm longing for your embrace
to take me home again

So many times
I have dreamed of you
I get so confused,
but it feels just like I'm so in love again
