

Angel's Tale

Hyde

Here in my heart
Memories linger
I hold them sacred
Safe from all others

Angel's tale

A love such as this
Once in a lifetime
Lost in your beauty
Still dreaming of you

Angel's tale

You drove the sinner from me
And shone with such glory
Touching me softly
My breath
Torn away

Wrapped in a silver veil
Under skies so pale
Trembling as I watched you
One holy night

Angel

Snow can be warm
Didn't you know that?
Just like a snowflake
Falling from heaven

Angel's tale

I kept my feelings from you
The heavens divide us
I longed to tell you
All my heart's desire

If only I had wings
Wings as white as yours
Up into the sky
I'd surely fly

Angel

Ah yes, on such snowy nights
Memories revive
Your eternal flame
Burning again

Secret

Here in my heart
Memories linger
I hold them sacred
Safe from all others
